Scripture Reading: Genesis 6:7, 8

Deep Bible Paradoxes via Glad Tidings of Good Things, adapted by Duane Patton

Reading through an older series of articles on the website, House to House Heart to Heart, under the section "Glad Tidings of Good Things" I found a very interesting tidbit called "Deep Bible Paradoxes" These were so good I just had to share them with you this week and I added the references as they actually appear in the Bible (KJV).

Finding through losing (Matthew 10:39)

"He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it."

Living through dying (John 12:24)

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit."

Receiving through giving (Acts 20:35)

"I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Freedom through servitude (Romans 6:18)

"Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness."

Strength through weakness (2 Corinthians 12:10)

"Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong."

Gaining through loss (Philippians 3:7)

"But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ."

Rightly Dividing the Word

A weekly synopsis of every book of the Bible with a memory verse designed to increase our faith

Exodus: Abraham's descendants (often referred to in Scripture simply as "Israel") are released from slavery, exit Egypt, cross the Red Sea, receive God's laws for them from Moses at Mount Sinai along with instructions on how to erect the Tabernacle. The Tabernacle would be a portable structure designed to allow Israel to worship and serve God prior to and after entering the land Canaan, the land God promised Abraham to give to his descendants.

This week's memory verse:

Exodus 14:13

"And Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see again no more forever."

Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
