Did You Know This About Philippians?

Paul wrote this letter which is characterized by joy while sitting in prison.

He uses the word “rejoice” nine times—more times than any other book of the Bible except for Deuteronomy and Luke.

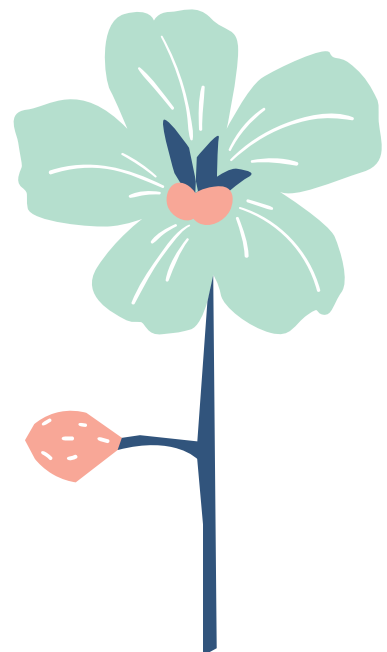

A key passage is Philippians 4:4, where Paul writes, “Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!”

What kept Paul in a rejoicing mood, even though he was incarcerated? His faith in and love for Jesus Christ, whom he mentions by name at least 42 times in this short letter!

It must be because Paul had learned that he could do all things through Christ who strengthens him (Phil. 4:13).

What about you?
